2016-17 NOTES

Led the Knicks in scoring 43 times, assists 13 times and rebounding 10 times. Scored a season-high 45 points on 1/29 at Atlanta, his 36th career 40+ point game, the most ever for a Knick versus the Hawks. Dished 10 assists on 1/7 at Milwaukeewaukee. Grabbed a season-high 14 rebounds on 11/25 vs. Charlotte. Carmelo Anthony is 25th all-time in scoring in the NBA at 24,156. Anthony is the 25th player in NBA history to eclipse the 24,000-point mark for his career. Over the last two seasons, Anthony passed the likes of Hall-of-Famers Charles Barkley, Larry Bird, Clyde Drexler, Robert Parish and Gary Payton. Anthony is 212 points from passing Allen Iverson for 24th on the all-time scoring list. Anthony eclipsed 10,000 points in his New York Knicks career on Mar. 12 at Brooklyn during the first quarter. He is the seventh player all-time to total 10,000 points in their Knicks tenure. He is the third player in NBA history to score at least 10,000 points with two franchises (Denver & New York Knicks). The other two are Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (L.A. Lakers & Milwaukee) and Elvin Hayes (Houston & Washington). Surpassed the 1000 steal mark and 6000 rebound mark and is now one of six players in NBA history with at least 24,000 points, 6,000 rebounds, 2,500 assists, 1,000 steals and 1,000 3PM. The other five are Kobe Bryant, Vince Carter, LeBron James, Dirk Nowitzki, and Paul Pierce.

2016-17 NOTES

Posted career highs in all three shooting categories, finishing: 46.1 percent from the field, 39.3 percent from three-point range and a career-best 89.8 percent from the free throw line. Finished the season ranked 15th in the NBA in scoring, fifth in free throw percentage, 12th in three-point field goals made, 31st in three-point percentage, 14th in steals and ninth in minutes per game. His 195 three-point field goals made tied Reggie Miller's 1994-95 season total for the third-most in franchise history, while he teamed with C.J. Miles (169) to make more three-pointers in a season than any pair of Pacers teammates in franchise history. Scored in double figures 73 times, finished with 20 or more 51 times and 30 or more 19 times. Recorded 11 double-doubles on the season, including seven over the final two months of the season. George scored 20 or more points in each of the final 12 games of the season and 19 times over the final 22 outings for an average or 28.5 points per game. He averaged 33.0 points, 7.6 rebounds and 4.8 assists per game while shooting 54.4 percent from the field and 40.8 percent from three-point range while leading Indiana to a 5-1 record in April to help secure a playoff spot. He scored 30 or more points in four of those games with three double-doubles. Finished with a season-high 43 points in the team's double overtime loss at Cleveland, 4/2. He tied his career high with 16 field goals made. He also finished with nine rebounds and a season-high nine assists to become the first Pacers player in NBA franchise history to record 40+ points, 9+ rebounds and 9+ assists in the same game. Scored 37 points as he shot 13-for-27 from the field, 5-for-10 from three-point range and 6-for-7 from the line against Portland, 12/10. He scored 15 straight Indiana points in the fourth quarter to help the Pacers complete the comeback victory. Finished with a game-high 33 points in the overtime win over Sacramento, 1/27, as he set a new career high with 16 free throws made while tying his career best with 17 attempts from the line.

Earned his fifth Eastern Conference Player of the Week honor - most by any player in Pacers franchise history - behind averages of 31.7 points, 9.0 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.0 steals per game from April 4-8. Appeared in his fourth All-Star Game as he was selected as an Eastern Conference reserve. He shot 6-for-16 from the field and finished with 12 points, five rebounds and three assists in 22 minutes off the bench for the East in New Orleans on Feb. 19. Passed 7,000 career points in the win over New York, 1/7, and reached the 8,000 point mark in the win at Orlando, 4/8. Missed seven games due to injury.

NBA CAREER

2015-16: After appearing in only six games during the 2014-15 season, George returned to the court to start 81 games while averaging 23.1 points, 7.0 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 1.9 steals in 33.1 minutes per game. Shot 41.8 percent from the field, 37.1 percent from three-point range and 86.0 percent from the free throw line. Among qualified league leaders, he finished 10th in the NBA in scoring. His 1,874 points scored marked the third-highest individual scoring total in Pacers NBA franchise history while his average of 23.1 points per game ranks fifth. Made a career-high 210 three-point field goals during the regular season, sixth in the NBA and second in franchise history behind Reggie Miller's total of 229 set during the 1996-97 season. Attempted more three-pointers (566) than any player in NBA franchise history. Made 454 free throws (sixth in the NBA, fourth in franchise history) on 528 attempts (ninth in the NBA, fifth in franchise history) while shooting 86.0 percent from the foul line (21st in the NBA). Recorded a career-high 152 steals. Scored in double figures in 78 games, including new career highs with 51 games of 20 or more points and 21 games with 30 or more. Became the first Pacers player in NBA franchise history to score 40 or more points three times in one season, and the first player since Chuck Person in 1988-89 to score 45 or more points twice. In the win at Washington, 11/24, he scored 40 points and teamed with C.J. Miles (32) to become the first Pacers' duo since the 1977-78 season to post 40+/30+ scoring totals in the same game. Set a new career high with 48 points while shooting 15-27 from the field, 8-11 from three-point range and 10-13 from the free throw line at Utah, 12/5. Scored 20 points and set a new career high with seven steals at Houston on 1/10. 3-for-6 from three-point range to go with two rebounds, two assists and two steals in 15 minutes off the bench in the win over Miami. 2013-14: Finished ninth in the NBA and fifth in Pacers' NBA-franchise history with a career high 1,737 points during the regular season (21.7 points per game). Led the team and ranked fourth in the league with a career-high 151 steals in the regular season. Set new career highs in free throws made (401), free throw attempts (464), and free throw percentage, finishing ninth in the NBA at 86.4 percent. Tied Danny Granger's 2008-09 mark for third in franchise history with 182 three-point field goals during the regular season. His career-high 500 three-point attempts ranked second behind Reggie Miller (536, 1996-97) in club history. Averaged 6.8 rebounds per game with 13 games with 10 or more boards. Registered 50 games with 20 or more points – most in his career – including 11 games with 30 or more. The Pacers posted a 38-12 record when George scored 20+ points and an 8-3 mark when he reached 30 or more. Led the team in scoring in 49 games, rebounding 23 times and assists in 14 games. Became the first Pacer since Jermaine O'Neal (December, 2003) to earn Eastern Conference Player of the Month recognition in November after averaging 23.6 points, 6.1 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.1 steals per game in the opening month of the season. Earned Player of the Week honors twice during the regular season, becoming the second player in franchise history to receive the honor twice in one season (Ron Artest, 2003-04). He averaged 25.1 points, 7.9 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game in the week of Nov. 10. Also led the team to a 3-0 mark while averaging 23.2 points and shooting 61.9 percent from three-point range (13-for-21) in the week of Jan. 19. Scored a career-high 43 points at Portland, 12/2. Also set new career-highs by shooting 16-for-30 from the field and hit seven of his career-high 15 three-point attempts. His 15 three-point field goal attempts came one shy of the franchise record for most in one game held by Reggie Miller (at Milwaukee, 4/18/93). Recorded his second-career regular season triple-double with 10 points, 12 rebounds and a season-high 10 assists against Chicago, 3/21. Finished with 13 games with 10 or more rebounds and 12 double-doubles during the regular season. 2012-13: The NBA's KIA Most Improved Player for the 2012-13 season, he was the only player in the NBA to average at least 17.0 points, 7.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.75 steals per game. Earned All-NBA Third Team and NBA All-Defensive Second Team honors. Finished 10th in the NBA with 170 3-pt FG and second in the Eastern Conference behind Atlanta's Kyle Korver (189). Posted a team-high 23 double-doubles, including his first career triple-double vs. Charlotte, 2/13 (23 points, 12 rebounds and a career-high 12 assists). Including three 30-point games, he tallied 20 or more points 34 times. The first Indiana player to be named the NBA Eastern Conference Player of the Week since Danny Granger in 2007-08, he led the Pacers to a 3-0 record in the week ending Dec. 16 with averages of 23.3 ppg, 7.0 rpg, 4.3 apg and 1.7 spg. Second on the team with an average of 7.6 rebounds per game, his 23 games with 10 or more boards featured a career-best 17 in the Pacers' double-overtime win over Sacramento, 11/3. 2011-12: Finished with averages of 12.1 points, 5.6 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.6 steals per game. Shot .440 from the field, .385 from three-point range and .802 from the free throw line. Scored in double-figures in 43 games, and 20 or more eight times. His 108 steals ranked sixth in the league. BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Sam Presti is entering his 11th season with the Oklahoma City Thunder after being named the 11th General Manager in club history on June 7, 2007 at 29 years old. A year into his tenure with the Thunder, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton I. Bennett.

During his 10-plus seasons with the Thunder, Presti has worked diligently to assemble the building blocks for long term success both on and off the court. Dating back to the start of the 2009-10 season, Presti and his staff have watched the Thunder amass the second-best record in the NBA during this span (behind only San Antonio).

Under Presti's guidance, within the first nine years of their existence, the Thunder has captured five Northwest Division Championships, reached the Conference Finals on four occasions, including the team's trip to the NBA Finals in 2012. Additionally, the Thunder is one of only three teams to finish with a record of .500 or better in each of the last eight seasons.

Throughout his tenure, Presti has led with consistent philosophies and values, but has used a diversity of roster building techniques to sustain several cycles of the Thunder. Over the last decade, Presti and his staff have enjoyed success with respect to the NBA Draft, beginning with the 2007 selection of Kevin Durant with the 2nd overall pick. Presti went on to draft Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka in 2008 with the 4th and 24th selections, respectively before taking James Harden with the 3rd overall pick in 2009. Other notable draft selections for Presti include Reggie Jackson with 24th pick in 2011 and the 2013 draft, where he selected franchise cornerstones in Steven Adams with the 12th overall pick and Andre Roberson with the 24th selection.

This past summer Presti completed a pair of landmark trades as the Thunder acquired four-time All-Star Paul George from the Indiana Pacers and 10-time All-Star Carmelo Anthony from the New York Knicks.

Under Presti's guidance, the Thunder advanced to the postseason in seven of the last eight seasons including five straight years (2010-2014) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-1960) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons (while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons). Dating back to the 2011-12 season, the Thunder became Western Conference Champions on the heels of the 2010-11 season in which the Thunder became the youngest team in the prior quarter century to reach the NBA's Western Conference Finals.

During the 2009-10 season, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

Since moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 2,200 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City Memorial and Museum soon after joining the organization.

At the request of former NBA Commissioner David Stern and then Deputy Commissioner Adam Silver, Presti was named to the league's first ever Competition Committee in May of 2012. During his term, which will be completed at the end of the 2017-18 campaign, Presti was a part of the committee that enacted several rule changes, such as concussion protocol, a package of rules to increase game flow, player rest policies, anti-flopping rules, deliberate away from the play fouls, modifications to playoff seeding, qualification and tie-breakers, and adjustments to the NBA Finals scheduling format. Additionally, Presti was asked to serve on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee in 2009, which helped to lay the groundwork for rules changes that the Competition Committee would later make regarding instant replay expansion and the expanded use of the replay center.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks in San Antonio before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law and a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team. He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision making.

Presti currently resides on the board of the Oklahoma City National Memorial and served as chairman of the Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness. In addition, he is also a member of the Oklahoma City Civic Center Board.

With the support of the Thunder, Presti has established the Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program within the Oklahoma City public schools. Presti has also spearheaded an initiative in collaboration with the University of Pennsylvania to bring resiliency and optimism training to local Oklahoma City area youth. Additionally, Presti is actively involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Shooting Touch, an organization that grants graduating college seniors the opportunity to travel the world and use the platform of basketball to help foster education and influence positive social change in third world global communities.

In 2016 Presti was awarded the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice due to his work in the area of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. Additionally, he was named the 2016 Oklahoman of the Year by Oklahoma Magazine. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

An accomplished drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston. Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle, to assist underserved students with their college tuition.

Presti and his wife, Shannon, have a son, Nicholas Rubin. Shannon continues to serve as the Director of Teen Leadership Initiatives for the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma City.

BILLY DONOVAN

HEAD COACH

In two seasons with the Thunder, Billy Donovan has guided the Thunder to a record of 102-62 (.622), while becoming the first NBA head coach to win 100-plus games in his first two seasons after coming directly from the college ranks. Moreover, Donovan is one of only three current NBA head coaches to win 100+ games in the first two seasons with their respective teams. During the 2016-17 season, Donovan helped lead the Thunder to a 47-win season and a sixth seed in the Western Conference playoffs.

Donovan concluded his first year as head coach of the Thunder (2015-16) by leading the team to a 55-win season, a Northwest Division title and a spot in the Western Conference Finals. By accomplishing the feat, Donovan became just the third first year head coach in the last 15 years to win 55+ games during his first season.

Donovan was named the third head coach in Thunder history on April 30, 2105 after enjoying an incredibly successful college coaching career that spanned more than two decades.

During the previous 19 years as head coach at the University of Florida, Donovan led the Gators to two National Championships and four trips to the Final Four while amassing a record of 467-186 (.715).

During his tenure at Florida, Donovan led the program to 16 straight 20-win seasons, three 30-win seasons, 17 consecutive trips to the postseason and six SEC Championships. Under Donovan, Florida advanced to the Elite Eight in six of the past 10 seasons.

Donovan concluded his time at Florida with the second most wins for a SEC program (467) in the history of the conference. Additionally, his 35 NCAA tournament wins rank as the most all-time among SEC coaches. Donovan's win total is more than twice that of any other coach in Florida history.

After winning back-to-back national championships (2006 and 2007), Donovan led Florida to 18 straight postseason wins, the longest run for any program since John Wooden led UCLA to 28 straight postseason wins.

Donovan has been the recipient of numerous collegiate coaching awards including ESPN.com's National Coach of the Year (2001), the Wooden Award's "Legends of Coaching" Honor (2010) and SEC Coach of the Year (2011, 2013, 2014).

In addition to his responsibilities at Florida, Donovan has served as head coach of USA Basketball's U18 and U19 National Teams in each of the past three summers. As a head coach with USAB, Donovan's teams have captured three gold medals while going a perfect 19-0 during national team competition. Prior to leading the 2014 FIBA Americas U18 Team to the gold medal last summer in Colorado Springs, CO, Donovan guided the 2013 USA U19 World Championship Team to a perfect 9-0 record and the gold medal in Prague, Czech Republic, and the 2012 USA U18 National Team to a 5-0 slate and gold in Sao Sebastiáo do Paraiso, Brazil.

Donovan's coaching experience dates back to the 1989-90 season where he served as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky. After five years with the Wildcats, Donovan was hired as head coach at Marshall, where he spent two years before leaving for Florida.

During the 2014-15 season, Donovan became the second youngest coach in NCAA history (Bob Knight) to claim 500 wins.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Donovan enjoyed a four-year playing career at Providence where he helped lead the Friars to their best season in school history and a trip to the Final Four in 1987. In addition, Donovan appeared in 44 games as a member of the New York Knicks during the 1987-88 season.

ADRIAN GRIFFIN

ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Griffin is set to begin his second season with the Thunder after previously serving as assistant coach with the Orlando Magic during the 2015-16 season.

Griffin spent five seasons (2010-15) as an assistant coach with Chicago. During the summer of 2014, he worked with the USA Basketball Men's National Team that captured the gold medal at the FIBA Basketball World Cup. Prior to joining the Bulls, he served as assistant coach/player development for two seasons (2008-10) with Milwaukee.

As a player, Griffin appeared in 477 career NBA games (179 starts) during nine seasons with Boston, Dallas, Houston, Chicago and Seattle, averaging 4.0 points, 3.2 rebounds and 1.4 assists in 16.8 minutes. He also played in 48 career playoff outings, averaging 3.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in 13.2 minutes and helped Dallas reach the 2006 NBA Finals. Griffin also played one season in Italy and three seasons with Connecticut of the CBA. In 1998-99, he was named CBA Most Valuable Player and also earned CBA Finals MVP, leading Connecticut to the league championship.

Born on July 4, 1974 and a native of Wichita, Kansas, Griffin was a three-year starter at Seton Hall University. He has two daughters, Vanessa and Aubrey, and two sons, Alan and Adrian, Jr.

MAURICE CHEEKS

ASSISTANT COACH

Maurice Cheeks is set to begin his third year after returning to the Thunder bench after the start of the 2015-16 season. Cheeks brings more than 30 years of NBA experience to the Thunder bench. Cheeks, who spent four seasons on the Thunder's staff from 2009-2013, returned to Oklahoma City after serving as the head coach of the Detroit Pistons during the 2013-14 season. Overall, Cheeks has amassed a head coaching record of 305-315 (.492) with the Pistons, Philadelphia 76ers and Portland Trail Blazers.

Before joining the Thunder in 2009, Cheeks served as head coach of the 76ers from 2005-2009, amassing a record of 122-147 and securing a playoff appearance in Philadelphia's 2007-08 campaign. Prior to joining the Sixers, Cheeks spent three-plus seasons as head coach of the Portland Trail Blazers (2001-05). During his time in Portland, he posted a 162-139 (.538) mark, accounting for the fourth-highest win total in Blazers coaching history. He helped the Blazers reach the NBA Playoffs twice, and his 2002-03 squad tied for second in the Pacific Division with a 50-32 record.

Preceding his work in Portland, Cheeks spent seven seasons as an assistant coach for the Sixers, working under head coaches John Lucas (1994-96), Johnny Davis (1996-97), and Larry Brown (1997-2001). In 2000-01 under Brown, Cheeks helped guide the 76ers to a record of 56-26 (.683) and a spot in the NBA Finals.

A 15-year NBA veteran, Cheeks retired from the NBA as its all-time leader in steals after playing with Philadelphia, San Antonio, New York, Atlanta and New Jersey. He was selected to the NBA's All-Defensive Team five times (First Team: 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986; Second Team: 1987) and played in four All-Star games (1983, 1986, 1987, 1988). A member of the 76ers' 1983 World Championship team, Cheeks was honored by the club through having his number (10) retired.

As an NBA player, Cheeks compiled career averages of 11.1 ppg, 6.7 apg and 2.1 spg in 1,101 games while shooting .523 from the field and .793 from the free throw line. A native of Chicago, he began his coaching career with the Quad City Thunder of the CBA. In his only season with Quad City, Cheeks helped guide the club to the CBA Championship.

The 1978 West Texas State (currently West Texas A&M) graduate was a four-year starter and three-time MVP in college. He finished his collegiate career third on the Buffs' all-time scoring list, averaging 16.8 points per game while shooting 56.8 percent from the field as a senior. Cheeks was selected in the second round of the 1978 NBA Draft (36th overall by the Sixers).

MARK BRYANT

ASSISTANT COACH

Mark Bryant is set to enter his 11th season as a Thunder assistant coach. During July of 2012, Bryant served as Head Coach of the Thunder's summer league team.

Prior to joining the Thunder's coaching staff, Bryant served as assistant coach/player development with the Orlando Magic from 2005-07.

Before his time in Orlando, Bryant spent the 2004-05 season with the Dallas Mavericks as a member of its player development staff.

Bryant enjoyed a 15-year playing career as the New Jersey native was a member of 10 different teams during his NBA playing tenure (1988-2003). Originally selected by Portland in the first round (21st pick overall) of the 1988 NBA Draft, Bryant helped the Blazers reach the NBA Finals in 1990 and 1992. He appeared in 797 regular season games during his NBA career with Portland, Houston, Phoenix, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, San Antonio, Philadelphia, Denver and Boston, averaging 5.4 ppg and 3.8 rpg in 16.9 mpg. Bryant also appeared in 79 career playoff games, averaging 3.5 ppg and 2.5 rpg in 12.2 mpg.

Bryant was a First Team All-Big East selection as a senior at Seton Hall in 1987-88, averaging 20.5 ppg and 9.1 rpg for the Pirates. The 6-9 forward led the school to it's first-ever berth into the NCAA Tournament.

DARKO RAJAKOVIC

ASSISTANT COACH

Darko Rajakovic enters his sixth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder organization and fourth as assistant coach. A Serbian native, Rajakovic spent his first two seasons with the organization as head coach of the Tulsa 66ers. Rajakovic became the first head coach born outside of North America in NBA G League history. The 36-year-old boasts a diverse coaching background with an emphasis in player development.

Rajakovic holds a career NBA G League record of 51-49. During his two seasons with the 66ers, Tulsa has been assigned seven players from Oklahoma City a total of 50 times (the most in the league during that stretch).

Rajakovic has also seen five of his 66ers players receive NBA GATORADE Call-Ups to the NBA, including four to the Thunder (Grant Jerrett, Daniel Orton, Mustafa Shakur and Reggie Williams). He coached 11 Tulsa players over the past two years who were on an NBA roster in the 2013-14 season.

Prior to joining the 66ers, Rajakovic had spent the previous three years as the head coach of Espacio Torrelodones of the Spanish EBA League.

Rajakovic began his coaching career at 16 years old with BC Borac Cacak in Cacak, Serbia where he coached the club to two national tournaments.

Rajakovic received a basketball coaching degree from the Belgrade Basketball Academy in 2004 and a degree in sports management from BK University in Belgrade in 2006. Rajakovic speaks Serbian, Croatian and Bosnian languages as native, but is also fluent in English, Spanish and basic Greek.

VIN BHAVNANI

ASSISTANT COACH

Vin Bhavnani enters his 10th season with Oklahoma City and his second as an assistant coach. Bhavnani spent his past five years with the Thunder organization as Manager of Advance Scouting/Player Development and his first two years serving as the team's Video Coordinator. Prior to joining the Thunder, Bhavnani spent two seasons with the San Antonio Spurs as the assistant video coordinator. He started his NBA career with the Los Angeles Clippers as an intern in the video department in 2004.

Prior to joining the Clippers, Bhavnani spent one season as an assistant coach for the women's basketball team at Santa Monica Junior College. The Los Angeles, California, native is a 2003 graduate of the University of Southern California.

ROYAL IVEY

ASSISTANT COACH

Royal Ivey is set to begin his second season with the Oklahoma City Thunder as an assistant coach after spending the 2015-16 season as a player development assistant and the 2014-15 season as an assistant coach with the Oklahoma City Blue of the NBA G League. In his role as a player development assistant, Ivey became the first former Oklahoma City player to join the Thunder's coaching ranks.

During his season with the Blue, Ivey helped guide the team to a 28-22 record and an appearance in the NBA D-League Playoffs.

Ivey enjoyed a 10-year NBA playing career that included 61 appearances as a member of the Oklahoma City Thunder. In 492 career NBA games (114 starts) with Oklahoma City, Atlanta, Milwaukee and Philadelphia, Ivey averaged 3.3 points, 1.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists. Ivey was a member of the Thunder for a combined 208 regular season and playoff games. After playing Oklahoma City in 2010-11 and 2011-12, Ivey most recently joined the Thunder via a 10-day contract during the 2013-14 season.

Ivey was originally selected with the 37th overall pick in the 2004 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks.

Born in New York City, Ivey attended the University of Texas as a four-year starter for the Longhorns basketball team. He holds a bachelor's degree in applied learning and science.

BILLY SCHMIDT

DIRECTOR OF QUALITY CONTROL

Billy Schmidt is set to begin his third season with the Thunder where he currently serves as a director of quality control after spending the past two decades coaching at the collegiate level.

Most recently, Schmidt spent the 2014-15 season at the University of Florida where he served under Billy Donovan as assistant to the head coach.

Before making the move to Gainesville, Schmidt spent the prior three seasons at Georgia Tech and eight seasons at the University of Dayton.

During his tenure at Dayton, Schmidt was named associate head coach prior to the start of the 2009-10 season. This came shortly after Schmidt was voted the Atlantic 10's top assistant coach in a poll of league coaches. During his eight seasons with Dayton, Schmidt helped lead the Flyers to 172 victories, two NCAA Tournament appearances and three NIT berths.

Schmidt moved to Dayton after nine seasons coaching in the SEC, Big East and Big Ten. Schmidt enjoyed a pair of coaching stops under Tommy Amaker at Seaton Hall and Michigan.

Prior to Seton Hall, Schmidt worked under former Kevin O'Neill at Northwestern, where he was an assistant coach from 1997-2000, and at Tennessee from 1994-1997. Schmidt joined the Volunteer staff as an administrative assistant in 1994 and was promoted to an assistant coach in 1996.

A native of Stamford, Conn., Schmidt began his coaching career in the high school ranks, serving as an assistant coach to Steve Smith at Oak Hill Academy in Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, for two years (1992-94). During his tenure, Oak Hill won back-to-back national championships.

Schmidt graduated with honors from Wake Forest in 1992 with a Bachelor of Science degree in secondary education. While at Wake Forest, Schmidt was a manager and coaches' aide for the Demon Deacons program for four years (1988-92). He holds a Master's Degree in Sport Management from the University of Tennessee.

TROY WEAVER

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Troy Weaver begins his 10th season with Oklahoma City and his first at the team's Vice President of Basketball Operations. Weaver spent the previous seven seasons serving as the Thunder's Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Weaver joined the Thunder in May of 2008 and assists General Manager Sam Presti with roster development and day-to-day basketball operations. In addition, he coordinates the team's player personnel matters including NBA Draft preparation, player free agency and summer league roster.

Weaver held the position of director of player personnel for the Utah Jazz in 2007-08. He spent three seasons (2004-07) as head scout for the Jazz before his promotion to director of player personnel.

Prior to joining the Jazz, Weaver was an assistant coach at Syracuse University for four seasons (2000-04). The Orangemen won the 2003 NCAA National Championship led by Weaver recruit Carmelo Anthony. In addition to his experience at Syracuse, Weaver spent time as an assistant coach at New Mexico (1999-2000) and Pittsburgh (1996-99).

Prior to his collegiate coaching days, Weaver amassed an 85-17 record as an AAU coach in Washington, D.C. He guided the DC Assault to the 1996 AAU Tournament of Champions.

Weaver graduated with an associate's degree from Prince George's Community College (MD) in 1991, where he also played one season of basketball.

ROB HENNIGAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF INSIGHT & FORESIGHT

Rob Hennigan returns to the Thunder front office after spending the past five seasons as the General Manager of the Orlando Magic. In his current role with the Thunder, Hennigan will oversee key functions that include Strategic Planning, Data Science & Solutions and Information Management & Counsel.

During Hennigan's previous tenure in Oklahoma City (2008-2012), he helped lead a turnaround that saw Oklahoma City go from a 23-win team in 2008-09 to a spot in the NBA Finals in 2012. He most recently served as the team's Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Hennigan spent four seasons with the San Antonio Spurs. He was named Director of Basketball Operations in September of 2007 after starting with the organization as an intern during the 2004-05 season. The Spurs won the NBA World Championship in 2004-05 and 2006-07.

A native of Worcester, Mass., Hennigan graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism from Emerson College in 2004. He was named a Division III All-American, an Academic All-American as a senior and at the conclusion of his collegiate career, Hennigan finished as Emerson's all-time leading scorer.

WILL DAWKINS

VICE PRESIDENT OF IDENTIFICATION & INTELLIGENCE

Will Dawkins begins his 10th year with the Thunder organization and his first as the team's Vice President of Identification & Intelligence. During Dawkins' 10 seasons, he has served in varying capacities including front office intern, assistant video coordinator, scouting coordinator and the previous five seasons as the team's Director of College Player Personnel.

In his current capacity, Dawkins is responsible for overseeing the professional and amateur evaluation departments both domestically and internationally. He also works closely with the Insight and Foresight department.

A native of Springfield, MA Dawkins led the High School of Commerce to the 2004 Division I State Championship, while earning the honor of Western Massachusetts Player of the Year. He went on to graduate from Emerson College with a degree in Broadcast Journalism. While at Emerson he served as captain of the men's basketball team and became a two time Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar All American. In 2015 he was inducted into the Springfield Massachusetts Sports Hall of Fame.

Dawkins, his wife, Tara and their one-year-old son "Trey" currently reside in Edmond.

PAUL RIVERS

VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF OF STAFF

Paul Rivers enters his 10th season with the Oklahoma City Thunder and his first as the team's Vice President / Chief of Staff. Prior to assuming his elevated position with the Thunder, Rivers served as the team's Director of Basketball Operations and previously spent three seasons with the club serving as Director of Basketball Administration & Technology.

In his current role with the team, Rivers works closely with various facets of the front office and basketball operations while overseeing both long term and day to day initiatives for the club. Rivers also oversees all aspects of the Thunder technology program and works closely with the Thunder coaching staff and leadership team to keep the organization on the leading edge of technological advances.

The Bloomfield Hills, MI. native was an integral part of the design and construction of the INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center in Northeast Oklahoma City. Rivers oversaw the layout design and overall construction of the facility on behalf of the Thunder organization.

Rivers served as a video coordinator with the Detroit Pistons from 2005-07, assisting the coaching staff during practices and games while also handling all of the club's video operations and footage.

Rivers began his NBA career with the San Antonio Spurs as a video coordinator during the 2004-05 season. Prior to joining the Spurs, he spent two years at Michigan State University. Rivers served as video coordinator under head coach Tom Izzo and the men's basketball team in 2003-04, and for the Spartans' women's basketball team during the 2002-03 season.

DR. DONNIE STRACK

VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN & PLAYER PERFORMANCE

Dr. Strack begins his 10th season in Oklahoma City where he currently serves as the Vice President of Human & Player Performance. He is responsible for leading the medical and performance staff in providing comprehensive, evidence-based services for Thunder players through innovation, research, and integration of multiple health care professionals.

From 2005-2008, Dr. Strack was in private practice as a physical therapist at Orthopaedic Physical Therapy Services in Wellesley Hills, Mass. Dr. Strack graduated with a Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2005. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2002 and was awarded the Athletic Training Department Performance Award that same year.

Dr. Strack's first role with an NBA team came in the sixth grade as a ball boy for the Indiana Pacers. He later served as a Graduate Assistant athletic trainer for the Indiana Pacers from 2002-2005. Dr. Strack also served as an athletic trainer during the 2002 World Basketball Championships in Indianapolis and the RCA Tennis Championships in 2001 and 2002.

In 2010, Dr. Strack completed his post doctorate fellowship in manual therapy from Regis University. He is board certified in Orthopaedic Physical Therapy (OCS) by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties and is a Fellow in the American Academy of Orthopaedic Manual Physical Therapists (FAAOMPT).

Dr. Strack lives in Arcadia with his wife, Sarah, and their 6 children – Ellabeth (10), Anderson (8), Lilajean (7), Evaleigh (4), Harrison (2) and Islarose (newborn).

JOE SHARPE

SENIOR ATHLETIC TRAINER

Joe Sharpe enters his 10th season with the Thunder where he serves as the senior athletic trainer. Before joining the Thunder organization, Sharpe spent four seasons as head athletic trainer for the Charlotte Bobcats. Prior to Charlotte, Sharpe was the head strength and conditioning coach/assistant athletic trainer with the Minnesota Timberwolves for two seasons, which included the team's Midwest Division title and run to the Western Conference Finals.

Sharpe has been an active participant in the USA Basketball program dating back to 2002. During the summer of 2012 and 2016, Sharpe won a gold medal while serving as athletic trainer for the men's USA Basketball Olympic team.

During his time with USAB, Sharpe served on staff for one Olympic gold medal and two gold medals at the FIBA World championships. His involvement with USAB dates back more than a decade and includes volunteer service at the Under-18, Under-19, and men's national team levels.

In 2007, Sharpe participated in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders camp held in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Sharpe was previously the head basketball athletic trainer at the University of Connecticut during a nine-year stint with the Huskies that included its 1999 NCAA Championship season.

Joe and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Joseph and Jayme.

MARC ST. YVES

VICE PRESIDENT OF LOGISTICS & ENGAGEMENT

Marc St. Yves enters his 39th season with the club and his first year as Vice President of Logistics & Engagement. He previously held the title of Director of Team Operations for the last nine years and prior to that, served as the team's equipment manager for 25 years.

St. Yves is responsible for all team operations including security, facility operations, equipment and travel. St. Yves travels full time with the team and is responsible for all of the club's logistical needs while on the road. He started his association with the Thunder organization as a 13-year-old ball boy during the team's 1979-80 season in Seattle. Five years later, he was named assistant equipment manager and became the franchise's primary equipment manager in 1985.

Marc and his wife, Karie, have one son Skylar. St. Yves hobbies include fly fishing, golf and outdoor pursuits.

MATT TUMBLESON

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS & ENGAGEMENT

Matt Tumbleson begins his seventh season with the Oklahoma City Thunder and first as the team's Vice President of Basketball Communications & Engagement. He previously served as the Thunder's Director of Basketball Communications for six years.

Tumbleson and the Basketball Communications staff are responsible for promoting the endeavors of the Thunder players, coaches and front office staff both on and off the court. He is also responsible for managing the day-to-day requests from local, national and international media. Additionally, Tumbleson oversees the organization's Community and Lifestyle Services function.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Tumbleson served three-plus years as the primary media contact for the Memphis Grizzlies for all business operations, FedExForum and team content away from the court. During the 2010-11 season, Tumbleson took over all team on-court communications initiatives in addition to his previous responsibilities as the Senior Manager of Communications and Publications. Before his stint in Memphis, the Illinois native worked on the team side of communications for the New Jersey Nets and San Antonio Spurs. During the 2005-06 season, Tumbleson worked for both the Spurs media relations and basketball operations department.

BLUE

The Oklahoma City Blue will begin its 10th season as the Thunder's NBA G League affiliate. Originally purchased in 2008 by the Professional Basketball Club, LLC, the Thunder's development team played its first six seasons as the Tulsa 66ers before being relocated to Oklahoma City in 2014.

The Thunder has displayed a strong history of utilizing its G League affiliate and developing both players and staff. Since Oklahoma City entered a single-affiliate relationship before the 2008-09 season, the Thunder has assigned a player to its G League club 121 times – the most assignments by an NBA team during that span. Nineteen different Thunder players have been assigned in the past eight seasons.

Oklahoma City has been active in "calling up" players from its G League affiliate. The Thunder has called up a player from this club on 13 occasions since 2008 – the most call-ups between associated teams in that stretch.

The Thunder has also utilized its G League team through developing NBA coaches. The past three coaches of this team have received "call-ups" to the NBA ranks. Darko Rajakovic (2012-14) is an assistant coach with Oklahoma City and Dale Osbourne (2011-12) and Nate Tibbets (2009-11) are both assistants with Portland. During the 2015-16 season, current Head Coach Mark Daigneault was elevated to the Thunder bench on Feb. 17 and the Blue finished the season playing under Assistant Coach Jarell Christian.

Throughout last season, Thunder guard Semaj Christon and forward Josh Huestis were assigned to the Blue, as the team advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time under Daigneault. Christon was assigned for four games and averaged 18.0 points, 5.3 assists and 3.8 rebounds. Huestis was assigned for a total of 38 games, 32 regular season and six playoff, and averaged 15.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 1.76 blocks per game.

The Blue will host 24 home games this upcoming season, with 22 games at the Cox Convention Center and two Field Trip Day games, one at the INTRUST Bank Arena in Wichita, Kansas and the other across the street at Chesapeake Energy Arena.

MARK DAIGNEAULT

HEAD COACH

Mark Daigneault (DAYG-nalt) enters his fourth season as head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue.

The Blue wrapped up a franchise record-setting season in 2016-17, tallying a franchise-record 34 wins, finishing as the regular-season Western Conference Champions and advancing to the Western Conference Finals for the first time under Daigneault.

In 2015-16, the Blue led the NBA G League in rebounding with 48.1 boards a game. Daigneault joined Billy Donovan's Thunder coaching staff midseason on Feb. 17 in place of Thunder assistant Maurice Cheeks, who was sidelined for six weeks due to hip surgery. Daigneault remained with the Thunder for the conclusion of the 2015-16 season and entirety of the Thunder's postseason campaign to the Western Conference Finals.

In his first season at the helm of the Thunder's NBA G League team, Daigneault led the Blue to a 28-22 record and an appearance in the NBAGL Western Conference Semifinals.

Under his watch the past three seasons, the Blue has seen four players called up to NBA rosters (Semaj Christon, Josh Huestis, Dwight Buycks and Reggie Williams) and five Thunder players assigned (Semaj Christon, Grant Jerrett, Josh Huestis, Mitch McGary and Cameron Payne).

Daigneault came to Oklahoma City after spending his previous four years working under Donovan at the University of Florida, where he most recently held the position of Assistant to the Head Coach. Throughout his four years at Florida, the Gators totaled a record of 120-30 (.800), won three SEC titles and advanced to the Elite Eight each year. In his final season with UF (2013-14), the Gators became the first SEC team to go 18-0 in conference play and went on to win the SEC Championship and advance to the Final Four.

Prior to his time at Florida, Daigneault spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. During Daigneault's tenure, the Crusaders finished as runner-up of the Patriot League Championship in 2008-09.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Daigneault served as a student manager with the Huskies under Jim Calhoun from 2003-07. While at UCONN, the Huskies won the 2004 NCAA Championship and claimed three Big East titles, posting a combined record of 103-32 (.763).A native of Leominster, Mass., Daigneault holds a master's degree in sports management from the University of Florida.

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. NBA Cares programs and participants have provided more than 4.1 million hours of hands-on service and created more than 1,115 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in communities around the world. The NBA also engages more than 18 million youth annually, inspiring play and teaching the values of the game. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including: Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

Through Thunder programs, player initiatives and the Thunder Cares Foundation, the Thunder directly impacts individuals and organizations throughout the state every day of the year. The team has partnered with hundreds of Oklahoma nonprofits, schools and civic organizations to give an assist to our neighbors in need.

Thunder community programs focus primarily on literacy, STEM education, fitness and nutrition. Through all its efforts, the Thunder strives to spread smiles and share hope throughout the community we call home.

In 2016-17, the Thunder led the league in player community appearances. The Thunder Cares Foundation is on track to complete the building or renovation of 20 basketball courts by the end of this season since the initiative began in 2010.

RUMBLE'S STORY:

For hundreds of years the tale has been told around Native American campfires. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce.

Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains.

One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders.

Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning.

The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast.

But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone.

With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone.

Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court.

So he joined their team. And the new legend of Rumble was born.

CHESAPEAKE ENERGY ARENA

Home to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, Chesapeake Energy Arena also plays host to major concerts, family shows, sporting events and the latest in show-stopping entertainment. While it is managed by SMG, Chesapeake Energy Arena is owned by the City of Oklahoma City and was the premier project of its visionary capital improvement program (MAPS) to finance new and upgraded sports, entertainment, cultural and convention facilities with a one-cent sales tax.

IMPROVEMENTS

Oklahoma City voters overwhelmingly approved a one-cent sales tax in 2008 to fund major upgrades to Chesapeake Energy Arena. A series of renovations to the facility were completed in 2013. Upgrades include new state-of-the-art digital signage, a grand entrance, renovated concourses, new concession and restaurant options, team offices and a kids zone.

LOCATION

Located near two major interstates, Chesapeake Energy Arena sits in the heart of a downtown renaissance, just steps away from the Cox Convention Center, as well as hotels, restaurants and entertainment venues in downtown Oklahoma City and Bricktown.

SEATING CAPACITIES

As a multi-purpose sports and entertainment facility, Chesapeake Energy Arena offers a variety of seating configurations with capacities ranging from less than 4,000 to over 18,000. The spacious 586,000-square-foot arena seats up to:

Basketball:	18,203
Concert (360-degree):	16,591
Concert (180-degree):	11,555
Concert (Theatre Style):	3,613

Accessible seats are available on each level of Chesapeake Energy Arena. The arena has a permanent ice floor, portable insulated flooring system and portable basketball floor to accommodate diverse event configurations. Chesapeake Energy Arena also offers an arena curtaining system with rigging capabilities for maximum flexibility.

SUITES

Suite members enjoy an elevated view of the action and elite privileges from the comfort of a private suite. Suite members enjoy a personal suite attendant for in-suite food and beverage service, perfect for private dining and entertaining guests.

TERRACE SUITES

Our terrace suites serve as an outstanding destination for the best in entertainment, networking, amenities and service. Perched "above the rim" atop Chesapeake Energy Arena's north and south baseline sections, terrace suites offer unparalleled luxury and astounding proximity to the sights, sounds and thrills generated from the action on the floor.

CLUB SEATS

Cox Club Level members enjoy an elevated view of the action, elite privileges and many conveniences offered by our premier facility. These members have exclusive access to the Cox Club Level and its premium restaurants and bars, which are perfect for dining, entertaining and mingling with other club guests.

LOCAL GASTROPUB

Located on the Cox Club Level, Local Gastropub offers upscale versions of traditional pub foods, plus a full-service bar with beer, wine and specialty cocktails. Along with the modern atmosphere, the gastropub features HDTVs and digital video boards. Guests can cap off their experience with a trip to the gelato case.

THE COMMONS

The Commons features a dynamic central bar, upscale bar seating and fresh food options for fans on the Cox Club Level. The space connects the Grand Entrance to the Club Level on the south side of the arena.

COURTSIDE CLUBS AND IN-SEAT SERVICE

Courtside members experience the game in the closest and most personal way possible. In addition to offering unparalleled proximity to the court, courtside memberships come with exclusive access to our premium courtside spaces, the Continental Courtside Club and the Pub, as well as behind-the-scenes views of the action and other exclusive privileges.

THUNDER BOX

Located above Section 305, the Thunder Box offers a unique way to experience events at Chesapeake Energy Arena, perfect for company outings or other group events. With sightlines above all other seats in the arena, this location provides a private, all-inclusive environment, complete with added comfort and amenities not available in other locations.

SKYBOXES AND SUMMIT SPACES

Skyboxes and Summit locations are private suites located above the 300 level, offering a view of every area of the inner bowl. These spaces are available for rent every game night and provide exclusive areas for smaller groups to gather.

OLD NO. 7 CLUB

The Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 Club has transformed into a downtown destination for every event at Chesapeake Energy Arena. Guests at this upscale urban bar can enjoy a fun and energetic atmosphere, which transforms from a contemporary bar during game nights to an intimate postgame club. Top-shelf cocktails and premium beer are served alongside an updated menu of light appetizers to complement each guest's beverage of choice.

BUDWEISER BREW HOUSE

The Budweiser Brew House is the largest restaurant in the arena open to all fans attending Thunder games. Located on the southwest side of Chesapeake Energy Arena and just inside the Grand Entrance, Budweiser Brew House is open on all Thunder game nights. For reservations, fans can call 405.601.4459.

CONCESSION STANDS

Chesapeake Energy Arena features numerous concession stands and specialty vendors throughout the facility, offering guests a wide variety of food and beverage choices.

SCOREBOARD

The scoreboard features a total of 10 full-motion video panels, providing an enhanced video and graphics presentation that keeps every fan in the middle of the action. The board also includes an LED ring to display video and text.

PRESS FACILITIES

Media facilities include courtside seating and a working press area, as well as interview areas, dining areas and provisions for TV broadcast.

LOCKER ROOMS

Chesapeake Energy Arena features four locker rooms, including one for the Oklahoma City Thunder and one for visiting NBA teams.

BOX OFFICE

Chesapeake Energy Arena has a full-service box office located near the northeast entrance. For your convenience, the box office is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Evening, weekend and holiday hours vary according to the Chesapeake Energy Arena event schedule. For further information or to purchase tickets online, please visit chesapeakearena.com.

BUSINESS OPERATIONS

DANNY BARTH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

An NBA executive since 1997, Danny Barth has served in his current position of executive vice president and chief administrative officer of the Oklahoma City Thunder since the team's inaugural season in 2008. In this role, he oversees all aspects of the team's business operations, driving its emphasis on building community partnerships and creating a first-class fan experience.

After overseeing the moving of the franchise's business operations to Oklahoma City, Barth shifted his focus to the team's growth and development, including overseeing the remodeling of Chesapeake Energy Arena to not only meet NBA requirements, but also to provide a strong fan-focused environment. The facility upgrades, which were completed in 2013, included new hospitality areas, enhanced seating and sightlines, modernized common areas and concourses, and the team's permanent corporate office.

Under Barth's leadership, the Thunder has become regarded throughout the industry as a leader in sports business and a model for best practices. Within its first five seasons, the team was recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its Ultimate Standings as the No. 1 professional sports franchise in North America and awarded Sports Team of the Year by the Sports Business Awards, presented by the Sports Business Journal. The national Make-A-Wish Foundation has honored the team with a Chris Greicius Celebrity Award, and Leadership Oklahoma has recognized the team with its Statewide Community Leadership Award.

Prior to his work with the Thunder, Barth served as interim president and CEO for two seasons with the Seattle Supersonics, having previously held positions as chief financial officer, vice president and controller for the team. He began his career with Price Waterhouse LLC, spending six years in the audit division in the corporation's Seattle and New York offices, where he specialized in retail and investment banking.

A graduate of Seattle University, Barth resides with his wife Julie and their two sons in Edmond.

BRIAN M. BYRNES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, SALES AND MARKETING

Brian Byrnes joined the Thunder organization in April 2005, and developed and executed the strategic sales and marketing efforts to launch business operations in Oklahoma City in 2008. Byrnes' current responsibilities include oversight of ticket sales, retention and operations; luxury suite sales and hospitality; marketing and communications strategies such as brand management, advertising, promotions, graphic design, digital media, e-commerce and event presentation.

Capitalizing on the unique platform of being Oklahoma's first permanent major-league sports team, Byrnes continues to foster programming that extends the reach of the Thunder brand to fans throughout the region. Initiatives such as Thunder Alley and the Thunder Rewards Zone make the game-day experience accessible to all Thunder fans visiting Chesapeake Energy Arena. Year-round, the Blue Alliance connects local fans in towns across Oklahoma, while the OG&E ThunderBolt brings an interactive Thunder experience to regional fairs and neighborhood celebrations.

Previously, Byrnes served as executive vice president of business operations for the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes, guiding the organization through a rebranding that included a new corporate identity, logos and team uniforms. Prior to joining the Coyotes, Byrnes built nearly 10 years of experience with the NHL's Dallas Stars and MLB's Texas Rangers.

Byrnes is actively involved in the Thunder Cares Foundation, Allied Arts, Leadership Oklahoma City, the National Sports Forum and the Greater Oklahoma City Sports Consortium. A graduate of St. Mary's University in San Antonio, Byrnes and his wife Ashley reside with their three children in Edmond.

CHRISTINE BERNEY

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY RELATIONS AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, THUNDER CARES FOUNDATION

Christine Berney joined the Oklahoma City Thunder in 2008 and currently serves as vice president of Community Relations and executive director of the Thunder Cares Foundation.

During her tenure, Berney has helped establish the Thunder as a leader in the Oklahoma City community and as a partner with nonprofits across the state. She oversees the many ongoing community outreach programs and events the Thunder runs, as well as the Thunder Cares Foundation, which focuses on building and refurbishing community basketball courts across Oklahoma.

Berney's professional background includes public relations and community relations positions in both the corporate and nonprofit sectors. Originally from California, Berney earned her B.A. in English from Oregon State University and her M.F.A. in Creative Writing from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

TONY DRISCOLL

VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Tony Driscoll serves the Thunder organization as vice president of Business Development, having joined the team in 2012. He leads the organization's efforts to foster relationships with existing business partners and to expand sponsorship opportunities.

Driscoll previously worked as vice president of sales and business development for the National Hot Rod Association (NHRA), headquartering out of Charlotte for the California-based organization.

Prior to that, he worked in several roles with the International Speedway Corporation (ISC), which owns and/or operates 13 NASCAR racetracks around the country. Over the course of 10 years with ISC, Driscoll rose to the position of senior director of partnership and integrated media sales, where he successfully developed and executed an expansive strategy to cultivate new partners, renew existing partnerships and integrate sales for numerous media outlets into the organization's corporate sales unit.

Driscoll is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

SCOTT LOFT

VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES, RETENTION AND DATABASE OPERATIONS

Scott Loft is an industry veteran with more than 25 years of professional sports leadership experience in the National Football League, National Hockey League and National Basketball Association.

Loft joined the Thunder in 2010 after three seasons with the Miami Dolphins and is responsible for the Thunder's overall strategy and tactics for all ticket sales, retention, database operations and business intelligence including season ticket sales, group ticket sales, executive suites and Club Level memberships.

Loft's sports career started with the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers, where he spent nine seasons, culminating as the director of ticket sales. After his stint with the NBA, Loft became one of the first employees with the NHL's expansion Nashville Predators, where his ticket sales team became the first NHL or NBA franchise to qualify for expansion by selling more than 12,000 season tickets before the NHL franchise was awarded to the city of Nashville.

After five seasons in the NHL, Loft joined the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars as executive director of ticket sales and marketing. Loft was chosen to be the Jaguars' sole attendee at the inaugural NFL Management Program at Stanford during the 2003 season, and his five years in Jacksonville were highlighted by the local oversight of the ticketing functions for Super Bowl XXXIX, which was played in Jacksonville in 2005. Loft then continued his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins, where he stayed until he joined the Thunder.

Prior to his career in sports, Loft received his undergraduate degree from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, and his master's degree from Temple University in Philadelphia. Loft currently lives in Edmond with his wife Cathy; their son, Josh, attends the University of Oklahoma.

DAN MAHONEY

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING AND CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

Dan Mahoney joined the Oklahoma City Thunder in August 2008. In his role of vice president of Broadcasting and Corporate Communications, he oversees the Thunder business public relations efforts, website (okcthunder.com) and broadcasting operations.

Previously Mahoney served as a public relations consultant for the Professional Basketball Club, LLC and the New Orleans Hornets. From 1995-2003 he was director of communications for Oklahoma Governor Frank Keating. He later worked with Gov. Keating as senior vice president of communications and public affairs at the American Council of Life Insurers in Washington, D.C.

Consulting with Gooden Group of Edmond, Okla., Mahoney coordinated public relations efforts for the Skirvin Hilton Hotel, a historic Oklahoma City landmark which reopened in 2007 after being closed for 18 years. He also assisted the Hornets during their relocation and two-year stay in Oklahoma City from 2005-07.

As director of communications for Gov. Keating, Mahoney was responsible for public information coordination for the State of Oklahoma and the Governor's office. That included public information efforts during the 1995 bombing of the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. Following that tragedy, he consulted for businesses and other government agencies on crisis communications.

Mahoney spent 18 years in radio and television as a news director, news reporter and sportscaster in Richmond, Va.; Albuquerque, N.M.; and Oklahoma City. He is a native of Philadelphia and attended Virginia Commonwealth University and the University of New Mexico.

Mahoney served on the 20-year anniversary committee for the Oklahoma City National Memorial. He has two adult daughters who live in New York City.

KATY SEMTNER

VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Katy Semtner joined the Oklahoma City franchise in January 2003. She serves as the team's vice president of Human Resources. Semtner's responsibilities include oversight of payroll, benefits, employee relations, recruitment, selection, orientation, performance management, compensation, policy creation, employment-law compliance and employee development.

Prior to joining the franchise, Semtner worked in human resources in the hospitality and nonprofit industries. She is a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources.

Semtner is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management, the Oklahoma City Human Resources Society and EWF International. The Seattle native is a graduate of the University of California at San Diego and an alumna of Leadership Oklahoma City.

NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

2018 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE

Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage.

All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format.

MEDIA INFORMATION

BRIAN DAVIS
THUNDER BROADCASTER

Brian Davis is entering his 10th season as the television voice for the Oklahoma City Thunder. He serves as part of a Thunder broadcasting team on FOX Sports Oklahoma that has been awarded five regional Heartland Emmy Awards since 2008.

A veteran basketball broadcaster, Davis returned to the NBA in 2004 as host of Seattle Sonics broadcasts. He regularly covered the Chicago Bulls during the Michael Jordan era and became a contributor to NBA Radio, hosting game broadcasts and serving as sideline reporter for the network during the Playoffs, including the NBA Finals. He later hosted Bulls broadcasts on FSN Chicago and occasionally called Sonics games in Seattle. He has an extensive play-by-play resume at the college level, including the Big Ten, Pac-10, Conference USA and the Mid-American Conference.

Davis has called games at the professional level in three other sports: football, as radio voice of the Seattle Seahawks; hockey, in a reserve role with Chicago Blackhawks; and soccer, with Major League Soccer's Chicago Fire. He has also worked as a preseason play-by-play announcer for the NFL's Arizona Cardinals.

As a sports anchor for CBS Radio and its Chicago all-news affiliate, Davis covered major events including the Olympics, NBA Finals and Stanley Cup Finals. His resume includes play-by-play on national college football broadcasts for Westwood One Radio. He is an accomplished interviewer and talk show host and has won several professional awards, including one for investigative journalism during his days as a news reporter in Chicago.

Davis holds a journalism degree from Northwestern University. He and his wife, Judy, have two adult children and make their home in Oklahoma City.

MICHAEL CAGE
THUNDER TELEVISION ANALYST

Michael Cage joined the Thunder broadcasting team in 2014 as its television analyst for all FOX Sports Oklahoma broadcasts.

Cage played 15 seasons from 1984-2000 as a power forward in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, Seattle Supersonics, Cleveland Cavaliers, Philadelphia 76ers and New Jersey Nets. He led the NBA in rebounding in 1988, capturing the title by grabbing 30 rebounds in the final game of the regular season.

A native of West Memphis, Arkansas, Cage was a first-round draft pick of the Clippers in 1984 following a successful career at San Diego State University. At SDSU he was named a second-team All-American in 1984 and twice was selected as Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year. The Aztecs retired his jersey (No. 44) in 1984. He was also a member of the gold-medal winning 1983 United States team in the Pan American Games, and he is a member of both the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and the San Diego State Hall of Fame.

Following his playing career, Cage has worked as both a broadcaster and a high school and AAU basketball coach. His broadcasting experience includes serving as TV analyst for the Memphis Grizzlies, FOX Sports West, ESPN, Prime Ticket and Westwood One radio. Cage coached Mater Dei High School in Los Angeles to back-to-back state titles in 2013-14 and a national championship in 2014. He also served as a guest coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers at the 2013 NBA Summer League in Las Vegas.

Cage has a long history of giving back to the community during and after his NBA playing career. The Michael Cage Foundation works with young athletes to mentor, teach and share life lessons.

LESLEY MCCASLIN

MATT TUMBLESON

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS & ENGAGEMENT

Matt Tumbleson begins his seventh season with the Oklahoma City Thunder and first as the team's Vice President of Basketball Communications & Engagement. He previously served as the Thunder's Director of Basketball Communications for six years.

Tumbleson and the Basketball Communications staff are responsible for promoting the endeavors of the Thunder players, coaches and front office staff both on and off the court. He is also responsible for managing the day-to-day requests from local, national and international media. Additionally, Tumbleson oversees the organization's Community and Lifestyle Services function.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Tumbleson served three-plus years as the primary media contact for the Memphis Grizzlies for all business operations, FedExForum and team content away from the court. During the 2010-11 season, Tumbleson took over all team on-court communications initiatives in addition to his previous responsibilities as the Senior Manager of Communications and Publications. Before his stint in Memphis, the Illinois native worked on the team side of communications for the New Jersey Nets and San Antonio Spurs. During the 2005-06 season, Tumbleson worked for both the Spurs media relations and basketball operations department.

Matt resides in Edmond with his wife, Christina, and their three children, Teddy, Audrey and Liv.

JOHN READ

SENIOR BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS LEAD

John Read enters his tenth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder where he currently serves as the team's Senior Basketball Communications Lead. He previously held the title of Manager of Basketball Communications for six years following a three-year stint as the Thunder's Basketball Communications Coordinator. In his current role with the team, Read serves as a liaison between the Thunder players, coaches, front office and the media.

The Mission Viejo, CA native is a 2006 graduate of Loyola Marymount University with a degree in Business Finance. Read joined the Thunder in March of 2009 after starting the 2008-09 NBA season with the Dallas Mavericks front office. His NBA experience dates back to 2004 when he began working as an intern with the Los Angeles Lakers Public Relations Department.

LAILA WANI

BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR

Laila Wani enters her second season as Basketball Communications Coordinator. Prior to the Thunder, she worked for the Miami Marlins, where she helped execute communications strategies for the Marlins during the 2016 MLB season.

Previous to her time in baseball, the Mustang, Oklahoma native served as communications intern for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and also spent time in the Athletic Communications department for the University of Oklahoma. Wani is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Public Relations in 2014.

SHELBY WILLINGHAM

BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR

Shelby Willingham returns to the Thunder for her first year as Basketball Communications Coordinator. Previously, she spent the 2016-17 season as the Basketball Communications Assistant for the San Antonio Spurs before being promoted to Corporate Communications Coordinator.

Prior to her time in San Antonio, Willingham spent the 2014-15 and 2015-16 campaigns interning for the Thunder's communications department. The Oklahoma State graduate also interned in the university's athletic marketing and promotions department for two and a half years before graduating with a bachelor's degree in Spanish and Secondary Education.

INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to the team's Chesapeake Energy Arena comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."

INTEGRIS is the official health care provider of the Oklahoma City Thunder.
